

Release: Suresh Rangarajan gets awarded Udyog Rattan Award
Date of event: 6th June 2008
Covered on: Moneycontrol.com
Date of coverage: 9th June 2008
Reference Link: <http://www.moneycontrol.com/india/news/pressnews/suresh-rangarajan-conferred-udyog-rattan-award/12/07/341750>

Suresh Rangarajan conferred Udyog Rattan Award

Suresh Rangarajan, the Managing Director and CEO of Artha Money was conferred with the prestigious Udyog Rattan Award in recognition for his strategic and innovative thinking and success in incubating new age businesses. Dr Bishma Narain Singh, former governor of Tamil Nadu and Assam, presented the award at a seminar on economic development held in the India Habitat Centre

Mr. Rangarajan recently announced his company's ambitious foray into India's retail personal finance industry by introducing a unique money management service. Launched under the brand name 'Artha Money', the company offers a single-stop, multi-product, multi-brand financial services solution for the retail Indian consumer. A highly successful business model, the company has already begun operations across 20 branches in key markets like Chennai, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh and Delhi, within four months of its inception.

Mr. Rangarajan said "It is indeed an honour for me to be conferred with the Udyog Rattan Award. I believe it serves as a testament to our successful business model. This award inspires me and all of us at Artha Money to strive for greater glory."

Artha Money's products include Investment Products like Equity trading, Mutual Funds, Commodities, Gold, Real Estate, Life and General Insurance, Asset Products like Credit Cards and Personal Loans as well as related services like Foreign Exchange, Taxation Related Services and Bill Payment Services. The company is capitalized for Rs 200 crores and is headquartered at Mumbai with regional offices in Chennai, Mangalore, Hyderabad and Delhi.